VIA LIAISON

Chairman
United States Intelligence Board
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

The Interdepartmental Intelligence Conference (IIC) has recently reviewed certain aspects of military attache travel within the United States and the Soviet Union.

Inasmuch as this subject is under consideration by the United States Intelligence Board (USIB), a copy of the material prepared by the IIC is attached for your information. One copy is also being furnished to each USIB member herewith.

Sincerely yours,
